R. The choultry was declared escheat in November 193-. If it is leased out for 11 years the property will be in the possession of the Govt for 12 years after which it can be disposed of. See para 7 of S.O. 197 a p 1180 of B.S.O. Vol IV – [illegible] 2.4.

Letter from T. Bhaskara Rao Esq., I.C.S., Collector of Bellary, Ref. C. 1818/35 dated 21st October 1935.

Escheat- Real property (Bellary)- Bellary taluk and town- Choultry in Goldsmith Street- Alienation to the Municipal Council- Report submitted.

The Commissioner, Bellary Municipality reports that the Municipality does not want the choultry for the location of the Birth and death office and vaccination depot. The question of alienating it to the Municipality may therefore be dropped.

2 I have leased out the building for one year to one Imamuddin Sahib who has been occupying it for the past 15 years, at a monthly rent of Rs.2. The immediate improvements to the building are estimated to cost about Rs.100 and the present lessee is willing to execute the improvemer at his own cost and take the building on lease for the same rent for the remaining period of 11 years and keep it in good repair. He also agrees to hand over the building to Government in the event of any adverse claim to the Choultr being established, without claiming any compensation for th improvements effected. I request permission to lease it out to him.
